FCC ANNOUNCES TENTATIVE AGENDA FOR JANUARY OPEN MEETING

(Washington, D.C.) – Federal Communications Commission Chairman Tom Wheeler announced that the following items will be on the tentative agenda for the next open meeting scheduled for Thursday, January 30, 2014:

Advancing Technology Transitions While Protecting Network Values: The Commission will consider a Report and Order, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, and Notice of Inquiry that invites diverse technology transitions experiments to examine how to best accelerate technology transitions by preserving and enhancing the values consumers have come to expect from communication networks.

Enabling Nationwide Text-to-911 Service for the 21st Century: The Commission will consider a Policy Statement and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking that sets forth the agency's policy goals regarding this critical public safety function, and seeks comment on proposals for widespread implementation and achievement of those goals.

Incentive Auction Task Force Presentation: The Commission will receive an update on the timeline and project plan for the broadcast television incentive auction.

Process Reform Working Group Presentation: The Commission will receive a presentation from the Staff Working Group on Process Reform at the FCC.

The Open Meeting is scheduled to commence at 10:30 a.m. in Room TW-C305, at 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C.

The event will be shown live at FCC.gov/live.
